

UBR3-WT best-hit half-lives, cross-checked against published turnover data

Li et al. 2021 lists only proteins losing >15% in 8 h, so absence from it is not evidence of stability · Mathieson values are the median of 4 human primary cell types

A The in-extract assay does track turnover in living cells

B Best hits with an independent half-life — every dataset that measured them

